

Welcome to our July newsletter

2023 seems to be going very quickly and hard to believe we are now half way through!

Looking back through the photographs, it is just over 4 years since Nancy, Christine, Judith and Roger helped place the 'Time Capsules' (well ...2 biscuit tins) in the plinth of our 'Legless Knight' during the reordering works. Wonder when the tins will be opened and what the people opening them will think?

Poetry Evening.....
Monday 10th July 2023

The Theme is NOURISHMENT. We all need nourishment and poetry is a wonderful way of helping us to think about what really nourishes us in every way. It may be summer sun bringing us fruits and vegetables or the changing seasons which brings us many different forms of joy.

Poetry encourages many ways to express the nourishment of the mind and spirit. Please join us for a nourishing evening of poetry and a glass of wine. Listen and enjoy poetry together whether you want to listen or read a favourite poem or two poems or read one you have written and want to share.

Come and enjoy the friendship and wine and see if we can offer you the NOURISHMENT of poetry - you may be surprised.

Looking forward..... would you be happy to do a book review please?

Many of us have copies of the Book 'Escrick A Village History' created by Sam Taylor over 20 years ago.

The book is now out of print and Sam has been in touch to suggest we may like to update the book and consider re-printing. We are exploring the possibilities and considering the options.

As one of the first steps, would you be happy please to review the existing book? and offer your thoughts and suggestions for an updated version? If so please do let us know and if you don't have a copy of the book at home, we have 4 copies available which can be borrowed.

We would aim to collate all your thoughts by the end October 2023. If we do take this forward we would be looking towards publishing in the summer of 2025?

We look forward to hearing your thoughts, views and ideas. Thank you.

We look forward to seeing everyone soon.
